For I the Lord love justice, I hate robbery and wrongdoing; I will faithfully give them their recompense, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them. Their descendants shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples; all who see them shall acknowledge that they are a people whom the Lord has blessed.

-Isaiah 61:8-9

Greetings Kindred in Christ,

It is finally Summer! Yesterday marked the beginning of a new season, and with that transition came one of the warmest days in a few weeks.

Transitions like this - moving from one season into the next - can give us a new perspective, switch us over to new routines, even infuse us with a new energy. These changes also mirror our faith lives moving in cycles from life, to death, and into new life again. The scripture for this week from the book of the prophet Isaiah speaks directly to living into that new life, and while he is speaking to a people broken by exile seeking to rebuild, he is also speaking to us, God is speaking to us. Every day is a new creation, and a new opportunity to do our part in building God's kingdom of peace and love.

As we reflect on the ways that God is calling us to be rekindled to rebuild, let us pray: Send your Spirit, O God of Creation, into our lives to wake us up to new possibilities, new paths, and new life. May that same Spirit guide us through bright days and dark nights as we strive to follow in the path of Christ, our brother. AMEN

Yours in Christ, Rev. Richard Bowley

You can read the letter by clicking the following link: https://www.quc.ca/s/letter-to-Quispamsis.pdf
- 3. Universal Pictures have arrived: There are still a few pictures left at my office as a reminder. Regarding the Directories. help guide us (or at least keep us close to the path!). Apart from reviewing what we have we will also be looking for feedback from the congregation.

If interested please contact Bob Crowley at robertgcrowley@gmail.com or call 849-0627.

- 5. Worshipping In-Person: If you plan on attending in-person, please review these guidelines as there may have been changes since you were last with us!

 - b. Entry & Exit: There are two main entrances/exits to the building: the sanctuary door, and the side door. Feel free to come and go through either of these doors.
 - c. Physical Distancing: As with masks, you are not required to physically distance, but if you prefer to maintain that spacing for yourself and others, you may do so, space-permitting.

If you have concerns regarding these changes, please share them with you Safe Church Committee through our chair Bill Whittaker, whittakerw3@gmail.com. Know that any concerns and comments will be reviewed and given attention.

You add so much to the experience of worship every Sunday! Below are the readers for the next 4 Services. If you see your name here and are unable to be available for your Sunday, please check the reader list and arrange a replacement and let Leslie know.
